

Safety and hygiene regulations for visiting the exhibition and events

- Proof of a vaccination or recovery is required to visit the exhibition
- The name, address and telephone number of participants will be documented temporarily for the purpose of contact tracing of infections
- Signs at the entrance point out all regulations. The front desk in the foyer is equipped with a protection made of Plexiglas.
- A minimum distance of 1.5 metres per person must be observed
- The wearing of a mouth and nose protector is mandatory in the exhibition spaces and the reading room. basis offers disposable masks at the front desk.
- No access for cough, fever, sore throat
- The coughing and sneezing rules (sneezing/coughing into the crook of your arm) and regular hand washing apply.
- Disinfectant dispensers are provided in the corridor.